Billing Rights - The notice of your billing rights is located on the back of your monthly statement.

Wisconsin Fees Only: Wisconsin law provides that no agreement, court order or individual statement applying to marital property will affect a creditor's interest unless prior to the time credit is granted, the creditor is provided with a copy of the agreement, court order or statement, or has actual knowledge of any adverse provision.

New York residents may contact the New York State Banking Department at 1-800-518-8866 to obtain a comparative listing of credit card rates, fees, and grace periods.

Ohio Residents: The Ohio laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all credit worthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio civil rights commission administers compliance with this law.

Washington State Residents: Washington state law against discrimination prohibits discrimination in credit transactions because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, or marital status. The Washington State Human Rights Commission administers compliance with this law.
